

Letter from the Editor

Dear Readers,

It's with both pleasure and pride that I'm writing to you as the new Editor of PBG Lifestyle Magazine.

Always thrilled to be living in the Sunshine State, I'm a true Floridian who graduated from the Benjamin School and received my Bachelor's in Journalism at the University of Florida.

Ever growing, Palm Beach Gardens remains as unique as it is steadfast in continuing to be one of the best spots in South Florida, recognized as a community-minded place to live, work and play. "Just another day in paradise" is not merely a catch phrase, it's a wonderful way of life!

In our March issue, we feature some of South Florida's finest women. For one, we recognize Detra Kay, who produces one-of-a-kind whimsical jewelry with a playful attitude. Additionally showcased is cutting-edge Columbian designer Adriana Castro, who has brought a new face to the exotic skins handbag and accessories industry. Highlighted is our cover story of Olimpia Zuccarelli, whose combination of business savvy and family recipes has her Italian restaurant packed to capacity daily.

This month will also be our largest Out & About section to date: we hit the links at the Clay Aiken Golf Tournament, dined on fine cuisine at A Taste of Compassion, enjoyed fine art at the Highwaymen Exhibit, and schmoozed with Palm Beach elite at the luxurious Third Annual Hope Ball.

Of course, we haven't forgotten our regular features, like Health & Fitness, Let the Good Times Roll, PBG Travel, Positive Parenting and Natascha's Notes. In coming months, additional features will be included for pet lovers, gamers, cooks, sports enthusiasts and entertainment buffs.

So find a comfortable chair, sit back, relax – and let us remind you why you call South Florida home. Ah, just another day in paradise!

Until next time,

Chris Hayes

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I received the January 2009 issue and I was impressed with the quality of the magazine, both in appearance and in content. The writers do a wonderful job of portraying the passion and caring of individuals to the readers ("Romantics at Heart", "Making A Big Impact On A Small Scale", and "The Innovative Motivator") and placing the reader on location ("A Taste Of Historic Scotland"). Kudos to your talented staff of writers and photographers, because you all bring to life such a wonderful area with your hard work. Thank you!

Dear Editor,

I got my February 2009 issue yesterday. WOW! The cover looks beautiful. This magazine is fast becoming a hard item to keep stocked at my store. I'm particular on what I house at my business, but do feel that PBG Lifestyle is a credible hometown media resource that warrants a good read. The array of stories and Must Have items keeps my customers buzzing, so keep up the great work and we, at Bebe Nails Salon, look forward to seeing what you have coming up in the March 2009 issue.

Dear Editor,

I've just finished reading the January issue of the magazine and I wanted to share with you how pleased I am to be a subscriber. Every month your publication offers a wonderful variety of articles, the topics of which appeal to a wide body of readers with diverse interests. Just this past month, I read about the lovely artist Edna Hibbel, the local radio show host JD with WIRK, and even caught a fabulous article about Scotland! I know of no other magazine in our area that delivers such inspiring articles on culture, local celebrities, and far away lands with as much class and enthusiasm as does PBG Lifestyle Magazine. I have subscribed from your inception, love the monthly results, and will continue to remain a loyal reader.
